

- Sheep, goat and rabbits are provided to farmers for rearing on Book value (subsidised rate)
- Seed of cenchrus and other pasture grasses are provided at subsidised rate.
- The Institute through a team of scientists and technical officers provides consultancy services to woolen industries, Central Wool Development Board, Commercial farms, Animal Husbandry Departments etc. at nominal rate
- Institute extend research facilities to students of other university/institutions by charging nominal fee.
- Institute provided testing facilities for wool and other samples at nominal charges.
- Institute provided training to farmers on sheep, goat and rabbit farming on nominal charges.